Hi Courtney,

I'm generally available the rest of the days this week, with a few meetings. If you propose times that work for you, I'm sure we'll have some overlap in availability.

Let me know what works.

Best,

Hi Scott,

We've met previously in discussions regarding metal shredders and other stationary sources. I have a couple of questions that are time sensitive and I was hoping to have a quick phone call with you tomorrow, if possible. Would you happen to have any time open? I would really appreciate it.

Thanks,
Courtney
